

THIS PAGE, CLOCKWISE FROM BOTTOM LEFT: Metal elements abound—as in the grand kitchen, where laser-cut metal is incorporated above the stove hood and beneath the cabinets. With its soft color palette, the master bedroom, like the family room and the kitchen, reflects a more feminine point of view. The room contains a custom-designed, swiveling day bed. The powder room features floor-to-ceiling bamboo-style iridescent art-glass tile and Waterworks fixtures and faucets. The mirror is from Urban Archaeology. OPPOSITE PAGE: The metal motif continues in the master bedroom with this raindrop design—made from laser-cut metal with a bronze mirror behind it—surrounding the fireplace.
